Swami Yogatmananda ji: Born in 1953 in Karnataka (India), joined the Ramakrishna Math and Ramakrishna Mission, the worldwide twin religio-philanthropic order established by Swami Vivekananda, in 1976. After ten years of service at Nagpur and two years training at the Mission’s headquarters (Belur Math, Kolkata) he was ordained as a Sanyasi (Monk) in 1986. He was the editor of the Marathi Monthly Jivan at Nagpur. Was transferred to Shillong, Meghalaya and then to Providence where he conducts regular services and classes on the religious scriptures and spiritual retreats. He travels to different parts of the United States and many parts of the World to give classes on Hindu Scriptures and also on comparative religion.
